

Final Exam Questions

Last Revised: January 9, 2011 by Col. de Cautzburg

1st Question - Principles of warfare are ...

- a - Honours, Medals, Bonus, Special Leave, Looting.
- b - Objective, Offensive, Mass, Economy of Force, Manoeuvre, Unit of Command, Security, Surprise and Simplicity.
- c - Fight for consideration and wealth.

2nd Question - If you plan to behave strategically in an uncertain future, what are the sources of practical advice?

- a - Historical experience, the golden rule of prudence and your common sense.
- b - Take the risk and attack.
- c - Consult an astrologer.

3rd Question - Unplanned or ill-conducted engagements ...

- a - Have always a lot of influence on a general progress.
- b - Are able to win battles
- c - Have no influence in matter of strategy.

4th Question - What must take a commander always into account ?

- a - The character, the moral fibre, the ability and the means at the disposal of his adversary.
- b - The character, the moral fibre, the ability and the means of his troops.
- c - Nothing.

NAVY

5th Question - What is a Single Line ?

- a - The best defensive formation.
- b - The best offensive formation.
- c - A row of words written across a page.

6th Question - Any littoral is composed of

- a - Seaward and landward.
- b - Shore and Sea.
- c - The region of the shore.

7th Question - In how many phases occur Anti-Surface Warfare engagements ?

- a - Two phases (localized and targeted).
- b - Three phases (detected - localized and targeted).
- c - One phase (detected).

8th Question - What is Naval warfare ?

- a - A combat in and on seas, oceans or any other major bodies of water such as large lakes and wide rivers.
- b - A warfare with ships.
- c - A naval commando operation.

9th Question - Modern Naval warfare is divided in how many operational areas ?

- a - One operational area (surface warfare).
- b - Two operational areas (surface warfare and air warfare).
- c - Three operational areas (surface warfare, air warfare and submarine warfare).

10th Question - What are Cruisers ?

- a - The two main types of cruisers are heavy cruisers and light cruisers.
- b - Cars in which policemen cruise the streets.
- c - A large motorboat.

11th Question - What is Naval strategy ?

- a - Fundamentally different from military strategy.
- b - Identical to land warfare strategy.
- c - Identical to third dimension strategy.

12th Question - Naval Air Defence and is comprised of ?

- a - Three components (counter air, active defence and passive defence).
- b - Two components (active defence and passive defence).
- c - One component (counter air).

13th Question - On what depended un success in Naval war ?

- a - The Commander in Chief's ability to organize a body of ships into a disciplined fleet, capable of obeying his instructions and signals.
- b - The admiral combat actions.
- c - The different combat support.

THIRD DIMENSION

14th Question - What turned the aircraft in a flying gun ?

- a - When mounted machine gun were able to fire through the propeller arc.
- b - The shooting at each other with rifles and pistols.
- c - The pilot.

15th Question - What is the DF 1 "Cloud" ?

- a - An extremely agile fighter.
- b - An agile Luftship.
- c - An agile bomber.

16th Question - What are DB 1 "Zeus" and DB 2 "Ares" ?

- a - Gods of an ancient Greek mythology.
- b - Naval Luftship-bombers and able to fly in high altitudes.
- c - DB 1 "Zeus and DB 2 "Ares" are bombers and able to fly in high altitudes

GENERALITIES

17th Question - What is the primary component in the Royal Army ?

- a - Regiments are composed of Battalions themselves composed of Companies/Squadrons/Batteries and Platoons/Sections.
- b - Battalions are composed of Regiments/Squadrons/Batteries and Platoons/Sections.
- c - Regiments are composed of Battalions themselves composed of Sections/Platoons.

18th Question - Airforce units are separated between

- a - Army Air Squadrons and Naval Squadrons.
- b - Infantry and Navy.
- c - Infantry and Royal Guard.

19th Question - What are the branches of the Royal Army?

- a - Infantry, Tanks, Artillery and Royal Guard.
- b - Infantry, Cavalry squadrons, Artillery and Royal Guard
- b - Infantry, Aircraft squadron, Artillery and Royal Guard.

20th Question - His Royal Majesty the King of Gotzborg is

- a - The Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces and holds the rank of Field Marshal in the Army and Grand Admiral in the Navy.
- b - The Commander-in-Chief, Army and the Commander-in-Chief, Naval Staff.
- c - The Commander of the Royal regiments.