

Justice Ministry Home Office

Statement of purpose, organisational chart & staff structure
25 July 2010

Statement of purpose

The Justice Ministry is responsible for:

- the administration of criminal & civil justice
- criminal & civil justice policy
- cross-government legal service provision
- constitutional affairs
- legislative reform
- land registration

Organisation

Staff numbers are provided in brackets.

- Civil Law Directorate (37)
- Corporate Services (314)
- Criminal Justice Directorate (72)
- Executive Directorate
 - Land Registry (4,732)
 - Courts & Tribunals Service (14,302)
- Inspections Directorate
 - Courts Inspectorate
 - Police Inspectorate
 - Prisons Inspectorate
- Judicial Directorate
 - Judicial Appointments Unit (43)
 - Judicial Complaints Unit (12)
- Law Officers Directorate
 - Attorney-General's Office (10)
 - Solicitor-General's Office (7)
 - Office of the Government Solicitor (92)
- Legislation Directorate
 - Drafting Unit (86)
 - Review Unit (31)
- Public Protection Directorate
 - Office of the Official Solicitor (46)
 - Office of the Public Trustee (32)
 - Office of the Public Guardian (274)

Senior staff structure

- Vice Minister of State for Justice (reports to Minister of State for the Home Office)

- Permanent Secretary
 - Deputy Permanent Secretary & Director, Corporate Services
 - Director, Civil Law
 - Director, Criminal Justice
 - Director, Courts & Tribunals Service
 - Director, Inspections
 - Chief Inspector, Courts Inspectorate
 - Chief Inspector, Police Inspectorate
 - Chief Inspector, Prisons Inspectorate
 - Director, Judicial
 - Head of the Judicial Appointments Unit
 - Head of the Judicial Complaints Unit
 - Director, Land Registry
 - Director, Law Officers
 - Attorney-General
 - Solicitor-General
 - Government Solicitor
 - Director, Legislation
 - Official Solicitor
 - Public Trustee
 - Public Guardian

